

Robert S. De Mauri, Partner

Bob De Mauri joined the Sanford Holshouser Economic Development Consulting in 2007. Prior to joining Sanford Holshouser, his experience includes ten years as the Executive Director of the Thomas Jefferson Partnership for Economic Development; fifteen years as the Director of Marketing and as an Industrial Development Representative with the Virginia Department of Economic Development; four years as a Director with the firm of Coopers & Lybrand in Washington DC; and ten years doing community planning with the Virginia Department of Planning and Community Development and the City of Hartford, Connecticut.

While with the Thomas Jefferson Partnership, Bob was responsible for establishing and implementing a program to promote job creation and private sector investment through new business development and the expansion of existing businesses. While with the Virginia Department of Economic Development, he was responsible for promoting the attraction of both national and international firms to the Commonwealth, as well as commercial motion picture production through the efforts of the Virginia Film Office. As a consultant with Coopers & Lybrand he directed a comprehensive update of the City of Newark, New Jersey's Master Plan as well as the preparation of an Economic Development Strategy. The plan and strategy focused on those factors that affect business investment and what local government, the private sector, and community groups could do to enhance the City's competitive position.
